A Show so Good, it Would be a Crime to Miss it

Special Guest to Attend Show

Mr. Bob Wire, world famous barbed wire collector, has reserved a table to display his soon-to-be-legendary collection at our show. Rumor has it that a portion of his collection may be stolen by an unknown barbed-bandit. It will be up to our show participants to examine the clues and attempt to solve the crime.

During the banquet on Saturday night, the identity of the barbed-bandit will be revealed. Bob Wire is scheduled to make an appearance and (hopefully) present a handsome reward to the sharp (pardon the pun) detectives who successfully solve the crime.
